NEWS ITEMS.

The cattle industry of the United States represents $1,200,000,000.

Omaha is putting forth an effort for the National Republican Nominating Convention.

There is talk of putting General N. P. Banks at the head of the National Soldiers' Home at Togus, Maine.

Harry Garfield, son of the late President Garfield, is attending lectures on law and political science at Oxford University.

The Republicans of Savannah, Ga., have organized a campaign club and invited Fred Douglass and ex-Senator Bruce of Mississippi to deliver addresses before it.

The annual report of C. E. McDonald, Superintendent of the Money Order system, shows that while yielding no profit for the year, the system was substantially self-sustaining.

This has been a bad year for constitutional prohibition. Four States have rejected prohibitory amendments—Michigan in April, Texas in August, Tennessee and Oregon this month.

Oscar Wilde is taking a doleful view of things lately, because as he remarked to Marion Crawford, "one-half the world does not believe in Providence, and the other half does not believe in me."

Washington politicians are asking themselves if Chairman Jones really meant it in calling the National Republican Committee to meet at "Arlington House". The latter place is in a cemetery.

It is reported that Senator Jones, now at Santa Monica, will build water works for that resort. Water will be brought from San Vicente springs, over three miles to an immense reservoir. The works will cost $40,000.

Engineer Bask, who was sent out to find a pass through the Sierra Madre for the new Salt Lake and Los Angeles railroad, has returned, and reports that a successful pass with an easy grade and little tunneling was found.

The Northern Pacific Company will not only refuse to obey the late order of the Minnesota State Railroad Commissioners reducing passenger rates from nine to three cents per mile, but will resist every attempt to enforce it by an appeal to the Federal Courts.

GOOD WATER AT SAN DIEGO.

An Abundant Supply Found, Soft and Pure.

SAN DIEGO, November 17.—For several weeks Babcock & Storey have had borers at work in the San Diego river-bed making a determined effort to strike artesian water. Their efforts have been crowned with success. A strong argument advanced hitherto against San Diego has been her poor water supply, but the developments of the past few days have put a stop to that cry.

These gentlemen induced a contractor to undertake boring for the precious fluid on Coronado beach a few weeks ago, and many people shook their heads and muttered something about useless waste of time and money, etc. But the success of the well in the river-bed has demonstrated that artesian water can be obtained here and they will push the well across the bay with all possible speed.

At first the flow was spasmodical, but it gradually became steady, and is now flowing a stream of pure and soft water through an eight-inch pipe at the rate of 30,000 gallons every twenty-four hours. As soon as the first signs of artesian water were noticed, Babcock & Storey ordered a monster pump from Lockport, N. Y., and inside of three months it will be completed and shipped to this city. The new pump will have a capacity of 2,000,000 gallons every twenty-four hours, and will throw water to a height of 500 feet, or sufficient to force it over the mesa for a distance of five miles. A stand-pipe will be erected on the mesa above the water works, into which the water will be forced and then distributed as desired. The water now flowing to the surface is soft and limpid and has a delicious taste. There is great excitement in the city, and the Sun this evening editorially advocates the appointment by the Mayor of a general holiday to celebrate the event.

The well is in the river bed about half a mile east of the old town and is only down seventy-five feet. Two other eight-inch wells are being bored, one of which is nearly completed.

ANXIOUS DEMOCRATS.

Striving to Gain a Greater Majority in the House.

WASHINGTON, November 17.—The Democrats in Congress were badly disappointed by the result of the recent Congressional election in Rhode Island for the reason, as the House now stands, that the Republicans would be able to elect the next President should there be no choice of a candidate at the polls. The Democrats have a majority of the whole membership, but not a controlling vote in the many different State delegations. Were the election of a President thrown into the House the vote would be by States, each State having one vote. A scheme is now on foot to make sure of a Democrat in such an emergency. The seats of two Republicans from California are contested, that of Felton by Sullivan and that of Vandever by Lynch. The ousting of the two Republicans in these two contests and the seating of Democrats would give the control of the delegation to the party of the latter. Or if only one of the Republicans was ousted the delegation from the State would stand a tie and therefore lose its vote in the election of a President. There are one or two other State delegations where a change of one vote would put the Democrats in power, but there are no contested seats from them. There is a contested seat in the Indiana delegation. Ex-Congressman Lowery wants the seat for which Representative-elect White holds a certificate. Now, if the contestants were seated in each of these three cases from the two States of California and Indiana, then a Democrat would be elected President were the choice to devolve upon the House. Realizing the desperate situation in which they were placed, there are many Democrats who are ready to vote on the contests in question. They care not whether their party men have a good case or not, so long as the contestants will vote the Democratic ticket. Most of the Democratic members will not care to question the testimony on which the contests are brought to the House.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA.

New Hotels Being Built Everywhere.

The Bulletin says:

When the business activity and general bustle of excitement had somewhat subsided in the southern counties at the end of last year's winter season, it was the judgment of some people that the era of prosperity that grew so rapidly had passed. Others, more wise, as is now proved, prophesied differently, saying that the good times in the south were but the beginning of a season of growth and prosperity that was sure to continue and to affect in time the entire State. The reports from the south so far this season have been of the same general tenor as they were last season and much of the same condition of things is observable also in sections of the upper part of the State. William Bell, the Pacific Coast agent of the Lake Shore and the New York Central lines, returned Sunday from a fortnight's trip in the southern counties. "You have no idea of the crowds that are coming in down there, and the building that is being done," said he, in speaking of his trip. Continuing, he told of visiting Santa Barbara, San Bernardino, Los Angeles, Colton, Riverside, San Diego and other points. In every town was the same general scene with slight variations only—new hotels everywhere, strikes of town lots and real estate dealers. From Santa Barbara to San Diego about the whole country is in town lots. He scarcely recognized the country about Lugonia, near San Bernardino, the home of the old pioneer, Dr. J. D. B. Stillman, for since he was there last January the place has become a thriving town. At Fallerton, a point on the Southern Pacific near Anaheim, a $50,000 hotel is going up, and a big hotel is being built at Riverside. There is one also being put up at Claremont, a point between Los Angeles and San Bernardino. It will cost $75,000. The Santa Fe railroad system is really building many of these hotels through a subordinate company called the Pacific Land Improvement Company. In Los Angeles the hotels are all full, and any board costs from $3 to $5 a day. In San Diego a cot-bed costs $1, and they are scarce at that. The new hotel at Coronado Beach is one of the wonders. It will have over 700 rooms and will cover nearly five acres. The dining room will seat 1,000 persons. Thirty billiard tables will help amuse the guests. The furniture for the hotel, which is to be opened by the middle of next month, was supplied by Mr. Chadbourne of this city, and is now on the way south. It filled eighty freight cars, which were sent in four sections of twenty cars each. The Arlington at Santa Barbara is being enlarged. C. J. Hawley of this city is now proprietor of this hotel. Mr. Pearson, formerly of the Baldwin, is now at the Arcadia in Santa Monica. The Southern Pacific is building new depots at Los Angeles and Santa Barbara.

It was the observation that the best class of tourists had scarcely begun to arrive. They will come later. Those who are coming in great numbers now are rated as second-class by railroads, but they comprise people who are coming here to settle. Many of these searching for farms will come north. The Raymond Hotel in Pasadena opened last Saturday. One excursion that reached Los Angeles last week consisted of fifteen carloads. It was made up in Kansas City and came West in two sections. It was the observation also that the prospective settlers cannot find all they desire south and are bound to turn to Upper California. "They are filling up there so that they are bound to come this way," was the remark.

The Boston Journal (Rep.) calls it "the President's victory in New York."

The Sierra Valley Leader says:

Sierraville supports a female barber, and Loyalton a female stage driver. We have heard no complaints of the passengers being driven too fast or talked to too much by the wielder of the reins and whip; or the customers of the wielder of the razor and scissors having been shaved too close or their hair cut too long, but they say it is harder to go to sleep, than when barbered by a male artist.

The Presidents of the State Wool-growers' Associations, who are ex-Officio Vice-Presidents of the National Association, are earnestly requested to be present and see that the several associations are fully represented at the meeting of the officers of the National Wool-growers' Association at Washington on the first Monday in December.

The office of first Assistant Secretary of State has been tendered by Secretary Bayard to George L. Rives of the New York bar and accepted. Mr. Rives is of a Virginia family. His grandfather was Senator from Virginia, and twice American Minister to Paris.

The Comptroller's call for reports of condition for October 5th brought out responses from 3,049 National Banks in various parts of the United States. The call of the same officer for October 7, 1886, brought out responses from 2,852 banks.

Mrs. Garfield is receiving very distinguished attention in England. She ranks socially "with the wives of knights."

There will be no lack of building material here next Spring. Every lumber yard will be well supplied.

Notwithstanding the large number of dwellings erected here this season, there is not a vacant house in Reno.

Milk sells for twenty cents a gallon in Reno, while in Virginia the rate is forty cents, and in Truckee and Carson thirty-five cents.

Geo. Givevich, of Carson, came down from the Capital last night on his way to the old home at Ragusa, Austria. He will make a six months' visit.

On and after the 1st of December the Western Union will make quite a reduction in telegraphic rates East. For ten words the maximum charge will be but 75 cents.

Hereafter sleepers will be attached to the passenger train that arrives here from the East daily at 1:40 p. m. and also to the train that arrives from the West at 8:25 p. m.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the several churches in town next Thursday. It is hardly probable that a session of the State Teachers' Institute will be held that day.

The Mt. Diablo has just sent down $17,859. It is said the mine is now free from debt; that the ore carries more gold than formerly, and that dividends are likely to be resumed in January.

There is nothing on earth, except a new brand of cigars, which the magazine editor, as he is best known, is more intent upon than the finding of new and competent contributors, except the dinner he can get at the Palace restaurant.

The stock market was lively yesterday. Con. Va. advanced to 23 but receded to 25. Ophir touched 14, but dropped back to 12. Seg. Belcher was lively at 8 and 8 1/2. Crown Point and Belcher hovered around 10, and all the list fluctuated more or less.

Services at the Baptist Church this morning and evening. Rev. C. L. Fisher, Pastor. Sabbath School at 12-15, p. m. Union Thanksgiving services Thursday morning at 11 a. m. will be held at the Baptist Church by consent. All are invited.

The Austin Reveille has entered upon its fiftieth volume, and has the Journal's best wishes for fifty more. Austin is not dead by any manner of means, and will be a better town in the days to come than it has been in times gone by. May it live long and prosper.

A PAPER COW BOY.

Anglomaniacal Actions—A Traveling Texas Arsenal—Reno Invaded—Loud Laughter.

Since the C. P. R. H. has put on the double trains going and coming East and West, one of the most interesting features of the change is the arrival of the west-bound train early in the afternoon. It occasions the presence of a large crowd of gazers at the depot, and many odd characters on their way to fortune in the Golden West are the subjects of their criticisms. Yesterday, however, the

CLIMAX WAS CAPPED
When the tired load of humanity began to emerge from the long train and seek refreshments in the various establishments which enterprising restaurateurs have provided for their accommodation. Into the hotel the more wealthy rush, gulp down a cocktail, and then regale themselves at the dinner table with all the delicacies of the season. The less fortunate men, women and children run wildly over the broad avenue and on Commercial Row purchase in the greatest haste loaves of bread, boxes of sardines, bottles of beer, canned fruit, cakes, sausages, etc., and returning to the cars deposit them in the various booths, and devote the remaining minutes to a stroll up and down the platform. American like, assimilation seems to be instinctive with them. They mingle with the

LOCAL POPULATION
As naturally as long acquaintance justified it. Hence queries upon queries are put to our citizens (who are only too willing to impart the information sought) as to the climate, industries, population, advantages to mechanics, tradesmen, laborers, etc., and more frequently the agricultural resources of the surrounding country. Strange as it may seem the percentage of questions (as noted by the ever vigilant reporter, whose Argus-eyes do not permit him to allow anything to escape his notice, calculated to enhance the future prosperity of Nevada,) with reference to the soil and agricultural advantages proper, is in the ratio of ten to one as against questions asked concerning the mineral resources. There is a great deal of food for reflection in this, and the scribe believes that the above reflections might be read

BETWEEN THE LINES
With great profit by all who desire to see our glorious State peopled with an honest, thrifty and industrious population. A population that we are losing daily because we do not advertise ourselves sufficiently, and therefore they only know of Nevada what they pick up in the hap-hazard manner referred to above. But more of this anon. It was not the nimble-fingered slinger of the pencil's intention to write an essay on the duties of Nevada's capitalists, business men, farmers and speculators, but to draw a modest picture of the genus homo who sometimes are the occasion of much merriment to our population, and possibly to those of Winnemucca, Truckee and other stations along the line of the railroad. He jumped upon the platform with the agility of a cat, and made a bee-line for Mrs. Graff's bakery where he purchased two loaves of bread, thence to Dan Sohl's and secured two strings of bologna, all the while heedless of the loud laughs and guffaws of the hustled gamblers and the hungry looking stud-horse poker players that lined the sidewalks. He turned toward the depot when he was accosted by

BOB CHRISTY,
The bootblack, with the salutation, "Have a shine. Do you want any Pinta bread?—pinta puts you know." No answer gave he to either, but rushed into Strohe's saloon, where a large number of sheepherders, ranchers, etc., were congregated, listening to Jimmy Hall play on the organ, and in a loud voice asked for a "five cent schooner." Being accommodated, he crossed the track and depositing his treasure in the car, was again on the platform in all the glorious panoply and paraphernalia of a

STORE-MADE COW BOY.
His hat was of the regulation cut, color and dimensions, which was encircled by two bands of yellow leather. His hair fell in Buffalo Bill fashion over his shoulders and his downy whiskers, smooth skin, large dreamy blue eyes and grecian nose gave him at once the appearance of "a bad man."

To this must be added a blue shirt laced with silk cords up the breast and adorned at the neck with a beautiful tie. These were covered with a neat fitting velvet jacket which came to his waist, around which, were a pair of corduroys, carefully lined for horseback exercise or Indian encounters, with buckskin. At this line, on his right hip he carried a huge Colt's 7 chambers self-cocking revolver, in a brand new leather case, with the handle exposed. On the left hip, the handle of a huge scalping knife put in its appearance, while his leggings were trimmed in the latest theatrical style with buckskin strips. He was not at all nonplussed, but rather seemed to enjoy the laughter and jokes cracked at his expense by the small boy and the paterfamilias who were collected at the depot. The reporter failed to get an interview with him and in fact was very chary about approaching him at all. However, he elicited the fact that his Uncle owned 20,000 acres

Of valuable land in Texas, and that he had come "hout from Hinglan, you know, to take charge of the ranch, you know." And as to why he carried such an arsenal on his person he simply replied: "Them bloody cow boys will know me, you know, when they see me, you know." And then chuckling to himself he said no more, while the reporter thought to himself, they will know you, you know, in Texas, when they see you and if they don't make you dance the can-can it will be for no other reason than that they may take pity on your idiosyncracies. What a contrast this comorant on American privileges, under the protection of American laws, is in comparison with two or three hundred honest men and women who were aboard the same train coming from the grain fields of the great west to build up homes for the future generations of our glorious country. Let the reader draw his own conclusions, but if the proper thing was done, his dime novel impressions, or any jike them, should be suppressed by a good square application of genuine American tar and feathers at the first station he might put in an appearance.

TRINITY CHURCH GUILD.—The ladies of the Trinity Church Guild are putting forth every effort to make the bazaar, to be held by them in the Nevada Theater next Monday and Tuesday evenings, a great success. A pleasing feature of the evenings will be national cradle songs, pantomime and tableaux by ladies of the Guild, assisted by several gentlemen. The vocalists are Misses Fredrick, Smith, Loomis. Miss Ella Lola will render Gottschalk's "Cradle Song." The tableau will be "Babe and Guardian Angel." There will be a Japanese scene, Mrs. H. J. Thyges; English scene, Miss Flo. Pianiger; Indian scene, Mrs. J. M. Blanchard; French scene, Mrs. T. K. Stewart; Italian scene, Miss Cora Manning; Irish scene, Miss Lydia Hoskings; North German scene, Miss Julie Wintermantel; Breton scene, Miss Gertie Shoemaker; Grecian scene, Mrs. E. L. Fulton; Spanish scene, Miss Carry Melly; Scotch scene, Miss Ada Finlayson, and an American scene by Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Fassett.

METHODIST CHURCH.—Preaching in the Congregational Church at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday School in the public school room next door to the Methodist Church, Sierra street, at 12:30 p. m. Thursday being Thanksgiving day, union services will be held in the Baptist Church at 11 a. m. The sermon will be preached by Rev. C. L. Fisher, the pastor. T. P. BRADSHAW, Pastor M. E. Church.

DRY GOODS.—The Palace Dry Goods and Carpet House is displaying very handsome lines of children's and infants' cloaks made of fine silk plush, and some of fine French cashmere elaborately trimmed with silk embroidery, also a very large assortment in plush, silk and lace, all of which are of the most artistic and latest designs. A careful inspection of the above lines is respectfully requested.

STATE MONEY.—The Silver State remarks:
County Treasurer Germain forwarded $20,000 by express to the State Treasurer at Carson yesterday, as a part of Humboldt's contribution toward paying the expenses of the State Government. Humboldt with one-fourth as many inhabitants as Storey county, has to pay twice as much as that county for the support of the State.

RAILROAD TAXES.—The Silver State says "this is the time of year when the advantage of having a good stretch of railroad in a county becomes strikingly apparent. The Central Pacific Railroad Company has just paid into the County Treasury $49,221 34, for State and County taxes for the current year."

Y. M. I.—All the young Catholic gentlemen who wish to become charter members of the Y. M. I., can do so by being at Odd Fellows' Hall to-day at 12:30 o'clock p. m., when the installation of officers will take place.

The Austin Reveille says "Reno has run on reputation more than on a solid basis, and we are not surprised that the people are now beginning to find it out." Does it allude to the Austin people?

E. E. Winfrey, for some time past teacher of the Suto school, has resigned to accept the position of bookkeeper for the Truckee Lumber Company, at Verdi.

The Dayton schools will be closed next week to allow the teachers to attend the Institute at Reno, and also to give the scholars a chance to celebrate Thanksgiving day.

Judge Rising has sustained the demurrers in the cases of W. H. Blauvelt and R. Mercer, indicted for perjury.

Distric Attorney Torreyson, Assessor Kersey and Hume Yerington, of Carson, were in town last night.

A man supposed to be Sing Ten Pauley was arrested at Carson yesterday.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world.
